

The Milton Keynes Difficult Airway Course for ODPs and Anaesthetic Nurses

This course incorporates lectures and hands on training to delivery high quality teaching on the Difficult Airway Society Guidelines, Human Factors/Patient Safety, relevant anatomy and airway equipment.

Saturday February 9th 2019 9am-4pm
Milton Keynes University Hospital Academic Centre

CPD MATRIX MAPPING 3A01

Programme:

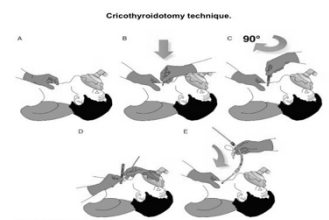

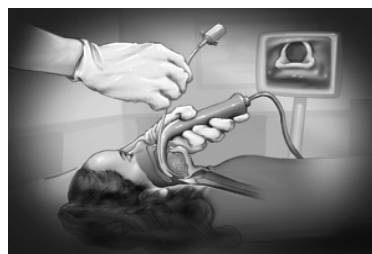

LECTURES

1. Anatomy and Assessment of the Airway
1C01,1C02
2. Managing the Difficult Airway 1B02
3. Extubation and Recovery
4. Difficult airway trolley
5. Difficult Airway in the Obstetric Patient
1B02
6. Non – technical Skills & Human Factors in Patient Safety 1I03

PRACTICAL WORK STATIONS

1. Video and Fibreoptic Laryngoscopy 2A01
2. Optimising Laryngoscopy
3. Front of Neck access techniques 2A01
4. AMBU Fibreoptic scopes 2A01
5. 2nd Generation Supraglottic Devices
(including intubating through SAD)

Lunch provided

C. Frerk et al. Br. J. Anaesth. 2010;105:300-311
© The Author 2010. Published by Oxford University Press on behalf of the British Society of Anaesthetists.

BJA British Journal of Anaesthesia